(4) Any representative who is found to be guilty of misconduct in his profession by any authority entitled to institute disciplinary proceedings against him shall be disqualified to represent before the Commission.

(5) That the proceedings initiated before the Commission should be signed by the Managing Director or a Director of the Company. Any other person signing the petition should have authorization from the board of Directors by a specific or general resolution.

12. Initiation of Proceedings

(1) The Commission may initiate any proceedings suomoto or on a Petition filed by any affected person.

(2) When the Commission initiates the proceedings it shall be by a notice, issued by the Office of the Commission and the Commission may give such orders and directions as may be deemed necessary, for service of notices to the affected or interested parties, for the filing of replies and a rejoinder in opposition or in support of the petition in such form as the Commission may direct. The Commission may, if it considers appropriate, issue orders for advertisement of the petition inviting comments on the issue involved in the proceedings in such form as the Commission may direct.

(3) While issuing the notice of inquiry, the Commission may, in appropriate cases, designate an officer of the Commission or any other person whom the Commission considers appropriate to present the matter in the capacity of a petitioner in the case.

13. Petitions and Pleadings before the Commission

(1) A Petition to be filed before the Commission shall be typewritten, cyclostyled or printed neatly and legibly on a white paper (on both sides) and every page shall be consecutively numbered and signed. The Commission may, in addition, seek a copy of Petition in electronic form on such terms and conditions, as the Commission may direct. The contents of the Petition should be divided appropriately into separate paragraphs, which shall be numbered serially. The Petition shall be accompanied by such documents, supporting data and statements as the Commission may specify.

(2) A pleading shall contain a clear and concise statement of the facts with material particulars, the relief sought and the basis for such relief.

(3) The Petition as far as possible, shall refer to the relevant provisions of the Act.

(4) On receiving any application or complaint other than the Petition, the Commission shall have a right either to change such application or complaint into a Petition and initiate its proceedings, or send such application or complaint to the concerned licensee/utility/entity for appropriate action.

14. General headings

The general heading in a Petition before the Commission shall be made as per the format prescribed under Form-I, annexed hereto. A Notice and communication pertaining to such a Petition and replies shall also be in accordance with Form-I.
15. Affidavit in support

(1) The Petition shall be supported by duly attested affidavit in form-II and it shall be submitted to the Secretary or such Officer of the Commission, as may be designated for this purpose.

(2) Every affidavit shall be drawn up in the first person and shall state the full name, age, occupation and address of the deponent and the capacity in which he is signing and shall be signed and sworn before a person lawfully authorised.

(3) Every affidavit shall clearly and separately indicate the statements which are true to the (a) knowledge of the deponent; (b) information received by the deponent; and (c) belief of the deponent.

(4) Where any statement in the affidavit is stated to be true to the information received by the deponent, the affidavit shall also disclose the source of the information and a statement that the deponent believes that information to be true.

(5) Any person, Association, body Corporate etc. gives false evidence intentionally in proceedings before the Commission or fabricates evidence for purpose of being used in proceedings shall be liable for prosecution under section 193 of the Indian Penal Code.

16. Presentation and scrutiny of the pleading, etc.

(1) A Petition shall be filed alongwith six copies thereof and each set of such a Petition shall be complete in all respects. The fees as may be prescribed by the Commission from time to time, shall be paid and proof thereof is enclosed along with the Petition.

(2) (a) A petition shall be presented in person or by any duly authorized agent to an officer designated for the purpose by the Commission (hereinafter called as the Receiving Officer) at the headquarters or such other filing center or centers as may be notified by the Commission from time to time and during the time notified.

(b) The petition may also be sent by registered post or speed post or courier addressed to the Commission Secretary.

(c) The vakalatnama in favour of the Advocate in accordance with the provisions of law and, where the petition is presented by the authorized agent, the document authorizing the agent shall be filed along with the petition, if not already filed on the record of the case.

(3) The presentation and the receipt of the petition shall be duly entered in the register maintained for this purpose by the office of the Commission.

(4) Upon the receipt of the petition, the Receiving Officer shall acknowledge and issue the receipt by stamping and endorsing the date on which the petition has been presented to the Commission. In case the petition is received by Registered post or speed post or courier, as the case may be, the date on which the petition is actually received at the office of Commission shall be taken as the date of the presentation of the petition.

(5) The Receiving Officer may decline to accept any petition which is not in conformity with the provisions of the Act and Regulations or directions given by the Commission or otherwise defective or which is presented otherwise than in accordance with the Regulations.

Provided that no petition shall be refused for a defect in the pleading or in its presentation, without giving an opportunity in writing to the person filing the petition to rectify the defect within such time as may be given by the Receiving Officer for this purpose.

(6) The Receiving Officer may be authorized by the Commission to carry out a preliminary scrutiny of the petition, application or appeal, in order to ensure that it satisfies the following requirements:

a) The petition, application or appeal is couched in a decorous language befitting the nature of the quasi-judicial proceedings and does not contain any reference which is unbecoming in respect of any organization or agency or any person employed in government, public or private sector; and be free from any insinuation, imputation and allegation of a personal nature against any individual or functionary whether from government, public or private sector.
b) The Receiving Officer shall ensure that the petitions or applications or appeals are registered only after carrying out the appropriate rectification of the defects pointed out by him by a notice. If the petitioner, applicant or appellant fails to carry out the required rectification of the defects within a period of one week from the receipt of notice from the Receiving Officer, the petition or appeal or application, as the case may be shall not be registered.

Provided that nothing contained herein above shall operate to extinguish the right of the petitioner, applicant or appellant to approach the Commission with a fresh petition, application or appeal on the same subject matter.

c) Where the petitioner insists on placing the matter before the Commission for a decision in the matter, which is found to be defective by the Receiving Officer, such a matter may be posted for hearing before the Commission at registration stage itself. Upon hearing the party, the Commission may take a decision either to refuse to entertain the petition or direct the Receiving Officer to admit the Petition and register it in the same condition.

d) The Receiving Officer may return any application or petition or appeal which, prima facie, is totally unconnected with the Commission’s jurisdiction.

e) The Receiving Officer may return an application, petition or appeal, if in another proceeding before the Commission, the issue arising in such application, petition or appeal has already been adjudicated between the same parties and in respect of the same subject matter.

(7) The Copies of the petition to be given to the other parties have to be filed before the Commission itself and the Commission may decide on sending a notice or otherwise and if required send such copies to other parties along with a notice.

(8) The Commissioner or any Member including Chairman authorized by the Commission for this purpose, shall be entitled to call for the Petition presented by the party and give such directions regarding the presentation and acceptance of the Petition as he considers appropriate.

(9) As soon as the Petition and all necessary documents are submitted and the defects and objections, if any, are removed, and the Petition has been scrutinized and numbered, the Petition shall be put up before the Commission for appropriate decision.

(10) (i). The Commission may admit the Petition for hearing without requiring the attendance of the party filing the petition.

Provided that the Commission shall not pass an order refusing the admission without giving the party concerned an opportunity of being heard.

(ii). The Commission may, if it considers appropriate, issue notice to such person or persons as it may desire to hear the Petition for admission.

(11) If the Commission admits the Petition, it may give such orders and directions, as may be deemed necessary, for –

a) service of notices to the respondent(s) and other affected or interested parties;

b) filing of reply and rejoinder in opposition or in support of the Petition in such form as the Commission may direct; and

c) the Petition to be placed for hearing before the Commission.

17. Service of notices and processes issued by the Commission:

(1) Any notice or process issued by the Commission may be served by any one or more of the following modes as may be directed by the Commission:

(a) service by any of the party to the proceedings;

(b) by hand delivery through a messenger.

(c) by ordinary post or speed post or registered post or courier services with acknowledgement due;

(d) by e-mail or fax or Short Message Service (SMS).
(e) by publication in newspaper, where it is not practicable to serve on any person in the manner mentioned above;

(f) in such manner as provided under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the purposes of service of summons.

(g) in any other mode of service as considered appropriate by the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall be entitled to decide in each case the persons who shall bear the cost of such service or publication.

(3) (i) Any notice or process issued by the Commission is deemed to have been received if it is delivered to the addressee personally or at his place of business or work, habitual residence or mailing address or agent or representative or advocate.

(ii) Where a party is not found at the address furnished by him to the Commission and after making a reasonable inquiry, a notice shall be deemed to have been received if it is sent to the addressee’s last known place of business or work, habitual residence or mailing address by registered letter or by any other means including Short Message Service (SMS) which provides a record of the attempt to deliver the notice by the Commission. The communication is deemed to have been received on the day it is so delivered.

(4) Where a notice is served by a party to the proceedings either in person or through any other mode, an affidavit of service shall be filed by the party before the Commission giving the details of the date and manner of service of notices and processes.

(5) Where any Petition is required to be published in a newspaper, it shall be published within such time as the Commission may direct and unless otherwise directed by the Commission such publication shall be made on a single day in a daily newspaper in English, Telugu language, and Urdu language having wide circulation in the area as decided by the Commission.

(6) In default of compliance with the requirements of the Regulations or directions of the Commission as regards the service of notices, summons or processes or the advertisement and publication thereof, the Commission may either order to dismiss the Petition or give such other or further directions as it thinks fit.

(7) No service or publication required to be done shall be deemed invalid by reason of any defect in the name or description of a person provided that the Commission is satisfied that such service is in other respects sufficient.

(8) No proceedings shall be invalidated by reason of any defect or irregularity unless the Commission, on an objection raised, is of the opinion that substantial injustice has been caused by such defect or irregularity or publication or there are other wise sufficient reasons for doing so.

18. Filing of reply, opposition, objections, etc.

(1) Each person to whom the notice of inquiry of the Petition is issued and (hereinafter referred to as the ‘respondent’) who intends to oppose the Petition, shall file the reply and the documents relied upon within such period and in such number of copies as may be fixed by the Commission.

(2) In the reply filed, the respondent shall specifically admit, deny or explain the facts stated in the notice of inquiry of the Petition and may also state such additional facts as he considers necessary for a just decision of the case. The reply shall be signed and verified by affidavit in the same manner as in the case of the Petition. The respondent shall also indicate whether he wishes to participate in the proceedings and be orally heard.

(3) The respondent shall serve a copy of the reply along with the documents duly attested to be true copies on the Petitioner or his authorised representative and file proof of such service with the office of the Commission at the time of filing of the Reply.

(4) Where the respondent states additional facts as may be necessary for the just decision of the case, the Commission may allow the Petitioner to file a rejoinder to the reply filed by the respondent(s). The procedure stipulated in sub-regulation (2), for filing of the reply shall mutatis mutandis apply to the filing of the rejoinder.

(5) Every person who intends to file objection or comments in regard to a matter pending before the Commission, pursuant to the advertisement and publication issued for the purpose (other than the persons to whom notices, processes etc. have been issued calling for reply) shall deliver to an Officer designated by the Commission for the purpose the statement of the objection or comments with copies of the documents and evidence in support thereof within the time fixed for the purpose.

(6) The Commission may permit or invite such person or persons including the associations, forums and bodies corporate as it may consider appropriate to participate in the proceedings before the Commission if, the Commission considers that the participation of such person or persons will facilitate the proceedings and the decision in the matter.

(7) The Commission shall be entitled to take into account the objections and comments filed after giving such opportunity to the other parties to the proceedings as the Commission considers appropriate to deal with the objections or comments.

19. Hearing of the matter:

(1) The Commission may determine the stage, manner, the place, the date and time of the hearing of the matter as the Commission considers appropriate for expeditious disposal and consistent with such specific timing requirements as are set forth in the Act or Reform Act or otherwise in any regulation.

(2) The Commission may decide the matter on the pleadings of the parties or may call the parties to produce evidence by way of affidavit or lead oral evidence in the matter, as the Commission may consider appropriate.

(a) If the Commission directs evidence of a party to be led by way of an affidavit, the Commission may provide a reasonable opportunity to the other party to counter the same by way of affidavit.

(b) If the Commission directs evidence of a party to be led orally, the Commission may as and when considers it to be necessary, grant an opportunity to the other party to the proceedings to cross examine the person adducing such oral evidence.

(c) The Commission may, if considered necessary or expedient, direct that the evidence of any of the parties be recorded by an Officer or person designated for the purpose by the Commission.

(d) The Commission may direct the parties concerned to file written note of arguments and/or submissions in any proceeding before it.

20. Powers of the Commission to call for further information, evidence, etc.

(1) The Commission may, at any time before passing orders on any matter, require any one or more of the parties or any other person whom the Commission considers appropriate, to produce such documentary or other evidence as the Commission may consider necessary for the purpose of enabling it to pass orders.

(2) The Commission may direct the summoning of witnesses, discovery and production of any document or other material objects producible in evidence, requisition of any public record from any office, examination by an Officer or nominee of the Commission, the books, accounts or other documents or information in the custody or control of any person which the Commission considers relevant for the matter.

(3) The Commission or any Officer authorised in this behalf by the Commission, may enter any building or place, where the Commission has reason to believe that any document relating to the subject matter of the inquiry may be found, and may seize any such document or take extracts or copies there from subject to the provisions of Section 100 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

(4) The Commission may also exercise the power in sub-regulation (3) if it has a reason to believe that any document relevant to the inquiry or the proceedings pending before it may be destroyed, mutilated, altered, falsified or secreted.
The parties to the proceedings have to intimate the Commission at least one day in advance that they are seeking adjournment of the matter.

Any party or representative including advocate or agent, shall not be entitled to meet and discuss any matter with the Chairman and the Members in official chambers after conclusion of hearing or when the matter is reserved for orders.

Provided that for any necessity or to prevent miscarriage of justice on receipt of a written representation from any party, the Commission may hear the parties by giving a short notice and decide the issue as it considers appropriate.

Reference of issues to others

At any stage of the proceedings, the Commission shall be entitled to refer such issue or issues in the matter as it considers appropriate to persons including, but not limited to, the Officers and Consultants of the Commission whom the Commission considers as qualified to give expert advice or opinion.

The Commission may nominate from time to time any person including, but not limited to, the officers and consultants to visit any place or places for inspection and report on the existence or status of the place or any facilities therein.

The Commission, if it thinks fit, may direct the parties to appear before the persons designated in sub-regulation (1) or (2) to present their respective views and/or make presentation on the issues or matters referred to.

The report or the opinion received from such person shall form a part of the record of the case and the parties shall be given the copies of the report or opinion given by the person designated by the Commission. The parties shall be entitled to file their version either in support or in opposition to the report or the opinion, as the case may be.

The Commission shall duly take into account the report or the opinion given by the person, the reply filed by the parties while deciding the matter and if considered necessary, the examination before the Commission of the person giving the report or the opinion.

Provided that the Commission shall not be bound by the report or the opinion given and shall be entitled to take such decision as it may consider to be appropriate.

The Commission may, if deems appropriate, refer matters to other agencies and bodies dealing with consumer disputes, Competition Commission of India under the Competition Act, 2002, and affairs of the licensee's management and administration.

Procedure to be followed for ex-parte order and notices:

When, on the date fixed for hearing or any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, if any party or his authorized agent or representative does not appear when the matter is called for hearing, the Commission may, in its discretion, either dismiss the petition for default or proceed ex-parte to hear and decide the petition.

Provided that no adjournment shall be given to either party or both after three consecutive hearings from the date of initial notice, unless the Commission is satisfied that the claim for further adjournment(s) is for bonafide and extraordinary reasons.

Where a petition is dismissed in default in appearance or decided ex-parte, the person aggrieved may file an application within 30 days from the date of such dismissal or being proceeded ex-parte, as the case may be, for recall of the order passed, and the Commission may recall the order on such terms as it thinks fit.

Provided that the ex-parte order passed by the Commission for default in appearance shall not be recalled after posting the case for three consecutive times.

Where the issue before the Commission requires to be decided on merit and either party or both are not responding to the notices, the Commission may direct the office to publish a notice in a newspaper having wide circulation and decide the issue on merits on the basis of the material available on record.

23. Orders of the Commission:

(1) The Commission shall pass orders on the petition and the Chairman and the Members of the Commission, who heard the matter will sign the orders.

(2) The reasons given by the Commission in support of the orders, including those by the dissenting members, if any, shall form a part of the order and shall be available for inspection and supply of copies in accordance with these Regulations. A Majority view of the Commission shall be final in the judgment.

(3) All orders and decisions issued or communicated by the Commission shall be certified by the signature of the Secretary or an Officer empowered in this behalf by the Chairman and bear the official seal of the Commission.

(4) All final orders of the Commission shall be communicated to the parties in the proceeding under the signature of the Secretary or an Officer empowered in this behalf by the Chairman.

24. Interim Orders:

The Commission may pass such interim orders in any proceeding in accordance with Act as it may consider appropriate, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case.

25. Inspection of records and supply of certified copies:

(1) Records of every proceeding shall be open, to the inspection of the parties or their authorized representatives at any time either during the proceeding or after the orders are passed, subject to payment of fees and compliance with such other terms as the Commission may direct.

(2) Records of every proceeding, except those parts which for reasons specified by the Commission are confidential or privileged, shall be open to inspection by any person other than the parties to the petition either during the proceeding or after the orders have been passed, subject to such person complying with such terms as the Commission may direct from time to time including in regard to time, place and manner of inspection and payment of fees.

(3) Any person shall be entitled to obtain certified copies of the orders, decisions, directions and reasons in support thereof given by the Commission as well as the pleadings and papers and other parts of the records of the Commission to which he is entitled, subject to payment of fees and compliance with such other terms as the Commission may direct.

26. Non-compliance of orders and directions:

(1) Where any complaint is filed before the Commission by any person or where the Commission is satisfied that any person has contravened any provisions of the Act or rules or regulations made thereunder, or any direction issued by the Commission, the Commission may after giving such person an opportunity of being heard in the matter, by order in writing, direct that, without prejudice to any other penalty to which he may be liable under the Act, such person shall pay, by way of penalty, which shall not exceed one lakh rupees for each contravention and in case of a continuing failure with an additional penalty which may extend to six thousand rupees for every day during which the failure continues after contravention of the first such direction.

(2) Any amount payable under sub-regulation (1), if not paid, shall be recovered as if it were an arrears of land revenue.
Chapter- III
Arbitration of Disputes

27. Arbitration:

(1) The arbitration of disputes, arising between the licensees or licensee and generators under the Act, which are within the scope of the jurisdiction of the Commission may be commenced on an application made by any party to the dispute.

(2) The Commission shall issue notice to the concerned parties to show cause as to why the disputes between the parties should not be adjudicated and settled through arbitration.

(3) The Commission may, after hearing the parties to whom notices have been issued and if satisfied that no reason or cause has been shown against the proposed arbitration, pass an order directing that the disputes be referred for adjudication and settlement through arbitration either by the Commission or by a person or persons to be nominated by the Commission.

28. Nomination of Arbitrators:

(1) Where the Commission decides to refer the matter to arbitration by a person or persons other than the Commission, the reference shall be:

(a) to a sole arbitrator if the parties to the dispute agree on the name of the sole arbitrator; or

(b) Where the parties are unable to agree on the name of the arbitrator, to a sole arbitrator to be designated by the Commission or to three persons as the Commission may direct taking into account the nature of the dispute and the value involved and, if the decision is to refer to three arbitrators, one to be nominated by each of the parties to the dispute and the third by the Commission:

Provided that if any of the parties fails to nominate the arbitrator or if any arbitrator nominated by the parties or the Commission, fails or neglects to act or continue as arbitrator, the Commission shall be entitled to nominate any other person in his place.

(2) The Commission shall not nominate a person as arbitrator to whom any of the parties to the arbitration has a reasonable objection on grounds of possible bias or similar such reasons and the Commission considers the objection to be valid and justified.

29. Procedure for adjudication, settlement and passing of award:

(1) Where the Commission acts as the arbitrator, the procedure to be followed shall be as far as possible the same as in the case of hearing before the Commission provided in Chapter II of these Regulations.

(2) Where the Commission nominates an arbitrator or arbitrators to adjudicate and settle the disputes, such arbitrator or arbitrators may follow such procedure as they may consider appropriate, consistent with the principles of natural justice and fair opportunity to be given to the parties to arbitration and shall follow specific directions issued by the Commission.

(3) The arbitrator or arbitrators, as the case may be shall, after hearing the parties pass an award giving reasons for the decision on all issues arising for adjudication and forward the award with relevant documents to the Commission within such time as the Commission may direct.

(4) The Commission shall give notice of the award given by arbitrator or arbitrators appointed by the Commission to the parties concerned and shall give an opportunity to the parties to file objections to the award and reply to the objections within such time as the Commission may direct.

(5) The Commission shall proceed to hear the parties on the award. The procedure to be followed by the Commission shall be as far as possible the same as in the case of hearing before the Commission provided for in Chapter II of these Regulations.

Provided that the hearing shall be confined to the objection raised to the award given by the arbitrator.
30. Cost of arbitration and proceedings:

The cost of the arbitration proceedings before the Commission shall be borne by such parties and in such sums as the Commission may direct apart from the fee paid to the Commission while filing the petition.

Chapter IV

31. Investigation, Inquiry, Collection of Information, etc.

(1) The Commission may make such order or orders as it thinks fit for collection of information, inquiry, investigation, entry, search, and seizure and without prejudice to the generality of its powers in regard to the following:

(a) The Commission may, at any time, direct the Secretary or any one or more Officers or Consultants or any other person as the Commission considers appropriate (hereinafter referred to as “Investigating Authority”) to study, investigate or to inspect any matter within the purview of the Commission under the Act.

Provided that the Investigating Authority may, wherever necessary, employ any auditor or any other person for the purpose of assisting him in any investigation or inspection.

(b) The Commission may for the purpose of sub-regulation (a) give such other directions as it may deem fit and specify the time within which the report is to be submitted or information furnished.

(c) In exercise of powers conferred on it by section 128 of the Act, the Commission may, on being satisfied that a licensee or a generating company has failed to comply with any of the conditions of the license or the provisions of the Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder, at any time, by order in writing, direct an Investigating Authority to investigate the affairs of the licensee or generating company and report to the Commission. For this the Commission may direct the minimum information to be maintained by the licensees and generating companies in their books and also direct the manner in which such information shall be maintained and the checks and verifications to be adopted.

(d) The Commission may issue or authorize the Secretary or any Officer to issue directions to any person to produce before it and allow it to be examined and kept by an Officer of the Commission specified in this behalf the books of account, registers, other documents, etc., or to furnish information to the designated officer.

(e) The Commission may issue such directions for the purpose of collecting any information, particulars or documents which the Commission consider necessary in connection with the discharge of its functions under the Act.

(f) If any such report or information obtained appears to the Commission to be insufficient or inadequate, the Commission or the Investigating Authority may give directions for further inquiry, report and furnishing of information.

(g) The Commission may direct such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters, be attended to which may be considered relevant in connection sub-regulations (a) to (f).

(2) The Commission may, after giving reasonable notice to the licensee or the generating company, as the case may be, publish the report submitted by the Investigating Authority or such portion as may appear to it to be necessary.

(3) The Commission may, at any time, take the assistance of any institution, consultants, experts and such other technical and professional persons, as it may consider necessary, and ask them to study, investigate, inquire into any matter or issue and submit report or reports or furnish any information. The Commission may determine the terms and conditions for engagement of such professionals.
(4) Where the report or information obtained in terms of this regulation or any part thereof is proposed to be relied upon by the Commission for forming its opinion or view in any proceedings, the parties to the proceedings shall be given a reasonable opportunity for filing objections and making submissions on the report or information. The Commission may order the following in writing:

(a) require the licensee or the generating company to take such action in respect of any matter arising out of the report as the Commission may think fit; or

(b) cancel the license; or

(c) direct the generating company to cease to carry on the business of generation of electricity.

(5) All expenses of, and incidental to, any investigation made shall be defrayed by the licensee or generating company, as the case may be, and shall have priority over that debts due from the licensee or the generating company and shall be recoverable as an arrears of land revenue.

Chapter V
Miscellaneous

32. Review of the decisions, directions, and orders

(1) The Commission may, on its own motion, or on the application of any person or parties concerned, within 75 days of any decision, direction or order, review such decision, direction or order as the case may be and pass such appropriate orders as the Commission thinks fit.

Provided that the Commission may allow on production of sufficient cause to the petitioner, a further period not exceeding 30 days for filing the review petition on such terms and conditions as may be appropriate.
